MedLIFE McGill- REJECTED

SDUWVRI DSP3LP03070

"As a chapter, we have two main goals. First, we hold fundraisers on campus to raise money for the MEDLIFE Fund; created by MEDLIFE to sustain their various development, educational, and health related programs. 100% of all donations to the MEDLIFE Fund goes directly to their projects.

Second, we organize McGill students to go on Mobile Brigades, which are week-long volunteering trips to various locations within Ecuador, Panama, and Peru. Students have the opportunity to shadow local doctors, as well as to gain valuable field experience in foreign medicine. A Mobile Clinic is set up in several stations, and most of them are run solely by students. These stations include taking patients vital signs, running the pharmacy, teaching children about dental hygiene, and taking patient's histories. While shadowing doctors, students have the opportunity to get hands on experience with diagnostics and patient care, and to learn about the health struggles that exist in these parts of Latin America."

Reasons for Rejection

- 1) Unconstitutional
 - a. Specifically, in violation of:

VII The Students' Society commits to demonstrating leadership in matters of human rights, social justice and environmental protection. The Society shall be mindful of the direct and indirect effects corporations, businesses and organizations have on their social, political, economic, and environmental surroundings.

The committee feels that MedLIFE's actions are unsustainable (1 week long, not recurring), and are harmful to the communities they attempt to serve (eg clinics run solely by untrained undergraduate students). We strongly believe that this group is socially irresponsible and is exploiting vulnerable communities so that McGill undergrads have something to write on their CVs.
