Youth Opportunities! Through Community

- Research the health and fitness needs of marginalized youth in Montreal, ages 13-18 (minorities by sexual orientation, socio-economic status, ethnicity, race, gender etc.)
- Apply this research to create safe space athletic programming for Montreal youth
- Implement solidarity practices among minority groups in

- To act, in essence, as student ombudspersons and guides.

Student Association for Nonviolent Thought

- Raise awareness on campus about the Tibetan refugee community in Northern India, as well as appreciate other cultures that promote nonviolence;
- Create a forum for discussion about nonviolent methods of change and compassion-in-action programs through readings, storytelling and projects;
- Explore nonviolent solutions through a public practice in our community (like smiling more often) and an optional personal practice of yoga;
- Foster a close-knit community focused on developing inner power as preparation for reaching out and participating in positive change in the world;
- Provide network opportunities for volunteering with grassroots NGOs in the Tibetan refugee community of Northern India.

Interim Status Tabled

Interfaith Forum SSMU

very good idea, but mandate is too vague will advise to clarify mandate and be more specific
