

Report of the Presidential Affairs Committee

November 26th, 2009

The Presidential Affairs Committee (lovingly referred to as PAC), has now met several times this semester. So far, we have created a working membership, established priorities, reviewed research, and set a rough work plan for the year.