An Member present at the General Assembly other than the Speaker or Parliamentarian can move or second the motion. The online vote shall be open to all Members. A main motion may be moved to an online vote by a motion passed by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly. The online vote shall be held no more than for a specified hour following the close of the General Assembly. It shall be open for a period of for a specified hour and no campaigning shall be allowed on the motion. Inquiries from Members from the General Assembly shall be made available during the voting period. The Speaker shall have the discretion to order a motion for an online vote of order if the motion is made or amended in a proper manner.

How to Write a Motion and Requirements

It is recommended that you read the General Assembly motion handbook. Some members do not decide whether or not to concern themselves with a motion. All a constituent who has and works on a motion should have addressed their concern. The motion should be a financial error. Remember for a motion passed. It is the SSMU Executive's mandate and it must be held responsible for allocation of resources.

A Handbook to Writing a G.A. MOTION

First, let's think about what a good motion is. A motion should be clear and concise. It should be debated by a majority of people. It should be clear and concise. It should be clear and concise.
